Dear Dr. Hadley:

I am writing to extend the American Academy of Ophthalmology's sincere appreciation for the invaluable volunteer contribution your colleague, Dr. Bouchard, has made to the Academy during this past year.

The Academy depends on its volunteers to develop continuing medical educational activities, guidelines and self-assessment programs critical for the lifelong learning of the ophthalmologist. With the assistance of Dr. Bouchard with these initiatives, the Academy ensures that the profession maintains the very best standards of practice and continually examines those standards as evidence grows.

I hope that you will acknowledge Dr. Bouchard for generously volunteering his expertise and time to advance the mission of the Academy and the profession of ophthalmology worldwide.

Sincerely,
