At the conclusion of this PCM-3 session, students will be able to:

- Outline rewards and challenges faced by physicians caring for dying patients and their families
- Discuss physician responsibilities when caring for a dying patient and upon a patient's death
- State and apply the key steps in delivering serious news
- Describe key steps in discussing “code status” with a patient
- Elicit a pain history from a patient and begin formulating a management plan