

Overall, by the end of PCM-1, students are expected to:

SSOM Objective ID	Course Objective ID	Course Objective	Assessment Methods
2.1, 3.3, 3.5	PCM1-1	Demonstrate proficiency in medical communication, to include eliciting a patient centered, complete medical history.	Standardized patients, small group feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback, MCQs
2.5, 3.2	PCM1-2	Demonstrate proficiency in patient and family education and counseling	Standardized patients, small group feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
3.2, 3.5, 5.4	PCM1-3	Interact with humility with patients and families across a broad range of socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds	Standardized patients, small group feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
2.1	PCM1-4	Demonstrate proficiency in performing a basic physical examination	Facilitator summative evaluation, OSCEs
2.1, 3.4	PCM1-5	Construct a comprehensive written patient history	Facilitator feedback, OSCE
5.5	PCM1-6	Evaluate bioethical issues according to prescribed methodology	Small group discussion
3.5	PCM1-7	Interpret challenging interpersonal situations and apply appropriate and effective communication skills	Facilitator formative and summative evaluation
6.2, 7.1, 7.2	PCM1-8	Apply principles of team communication to settings of interprofessional collaboration	Mentor feedback
2.6	PCM1-9	Apply techniques of health promotion and disease prevention to patient interactions	Standardized patients, small group feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
8.1	PCM1-10	Utilize and foster skills necessary to support life-long career satisfaction	Facilitator feedback
5.1-5.6	PCM1-11	Demonstrate behaviors appropriate to the profession in all course activities	Standardized patients, small group feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
1.6	PCM1-12	Apply principles of screening and behavior change counseling to patients with harmful or high risk behaviors	Facilitator and small group observation and feedback
3.1, 3.3	PCM1-13	Develop skills involved in oral presentation of patient cases	OSCE
2.2, 4.2	PCM1-14	Differentiate data gathered from subjective and objective sources with regards to importance to a patient's chief concern.	OSCE, Facilitator feedback