

Overall, by the end of PCM-1, students are expected to:

SSOM Objective ID	Course Objective ID	Course Objective	Assessment Method(s)
2.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.5	PCM1-1	Demonstrate proficiency in medical communication, to include taking a patient centered, complete medical history	Standardized patients, small group observation and feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback, low stake MCQs
2.1	PCM1-4	Demonstrate proficiency in performing a basic physical examination	OSCEs
2.1, 3.4	PCM1-5	Construct a comprehensive written patient history	Facilitator informal evaluation, Combined OSCE
5.5	PCM1-6	Evaluate bioethical issues according to prescribed methodology	Small group discussion
3.5	PCM1-7	Interpret challenging interpersonal situations and apply effective communication skills	Small group facilitator evaluation (summative and formative), SP event
4.1	PCM1-6	Employ self assessment and reflection techniques with regards to participation and performance in multiple settings	Small group facilitator evaluation (summative and formative)
2.5	PCM1-2	Demonstrate proficiency in patient and family education and counseling	Standardized patients, small group observation and feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
3.2, 3.5	PCM1-3	Interact with humility with patients and families across the broad range of socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds	Standardized patients, small group observation and feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
2.6	PCM1-9	Apply techniques of health promotion and disease prevention in patient interactions	Standardized patients, small group observation and feedback, facilitatory formative and summative feedback
8.1	PCM1-10	Utilize and foster skills necessary to support life-long career satisfaction	Facilitator feedback
5.1-5.6	PCM 1-11	Demonstrate behaviors appropriate to the profession in all course activities including collaborative interprofessional practice	Standardized patients, small group observation and feedback, facilitator formative and summative feedback
1.6	PCM1-12	Apply principles of screening and behavior change counseling to patients with harmful or risky behaviors	Small group observation and feedback
3.1, 3.3	PCM1-13	Develop skills involved in oral presentation of medical cases	Combined OSCE