REQUIRED TYPES OF PATIENTS TO BE SEEN ON SURGERY CLERKSHIP

Abdominal pain/Acute abdomen	• PBL session: abdominal pain • Surgery: A Case Based Clinical Review by de Virgilio available through HSC library – Chapter 3 Abdominal pain, Nausea, and Vomiting (pg 39-50)
Hernias (groin/ventral)	• PBL session: abdominal wall and groin masses • Surgery: A Case Based Clinical Review by de Virgilio available through HSC library – Chapter 2 Nausea, Vomiting and left groin mass (pg 25-38)
Pain assessment and management	• PBL Postoperative care
Perioperative Management	• PBL Perioperative Care
Surgical colorectal disease	• PBL session: Vomiting, diarrhea and constipation • Surgery: A Case Based Clinical Review by de Virgilio available through HSC library – Chapter 24 Pencil-thin Stools and intermittent constipation (pg 355-368)
Surgical hepatobiliary disease	• PBL session: abdominal pain • Surgery: A Case Based Clinical Review by de Virgilio available through HSC library – Chapter 18 Postprandial right upper quadrant pain (pgs 267-279)